In 2008, Redfootz founded his own R&B/Contemporary Jazz band “Redfootz Presents the Red Sessions” which he is the manager, producer and drummer. The 7-piece band is comprised of male & female vocalists, keyboardist, bassist, guitarist, percussionist, drummer and occasional saxophonist; which performs a wide variety of music from originals, Jazz, Old School, and Top 40 R&B covers. The Red Sessions band is influenced by artist such as Earth, Wind & Fire; Chaka Khan & Rufus, Mint Condition, Frankie Beverly & Maze, and Jill Scott to name a few.

Soon after being formed, The Red Sessions released their first self-titled CD in 2008, which covers originals and cover hits. The band has been performing consistently throughout the MD, VA, & DC Metropolitan area at festivals, casinos, theatres, corporate events, and private events. In 2014, Redfootz Presents The Red Sessions released their first Live CD from a very popular venue “Half Note Lounge” in Bowie, Maryland.
